BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submits a draft notification for approval embodying certain amendments to the existing Country Beer Rules.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Letter No 6109/394 dt 8/4/03. The Excise Commissioner suggests the following amendments to the country beer rules issued under Govt. Notifn No. 5-93-Ex-7-6-95 dt 30-6-1902.

1) He states that it has become

to his notice that the local brewers & those on the Nilgiris have combined in interest & that there may not on this account be healthy competition in the next sales. He therefore proposes to raise the license fee per hogshead from Rs. 24 to Rs. 35/-. Perhaps he means to recoup, by this means, the loss or decrease in the amount of bid.

2) The security deposit of Rs. 5000/- is reported to be too high for the taverns in the Bangalore City and an option is therefore proposed to be given to the Dy. Comr. to reduce the deposit amount at his descretion.

3) G.O. No. 593-608-R.7.66-94 dated 29.7.02.

The alterations proposed are only 3 in no:-viz

(1) Raising the ~~license~~ assessment per hogshead from Rs 24 to Rs 35.- for which good reasons have been applied.

(2) Reduction of deposit in the Bangalore city at the 4½ power distillation.- ~~The deposit~~ This is indefinite & does not seem to me to be desirable — The amount may be reduced from Rs 500 to Rs 250 - If however the Govt power thinks otherwise (The Ex will please com. him by a W.O.) I have no objection -

(3) If proper mechanical & local agency can be created all doubt. This is all right.

A & B Three amendments are proposed by the Excise Court to Country Beer Tavern Licence Rules.

To avoid the consequences of the probable loss resulting from a combination among beersellers and brewers it is proposed to raise the fee for keepers from 24 to 35.

The next proposal is to give the Dy Courts of Exchequer discretion where the amount of deposit for taverns instead of such deposit being the fixed sum of 500 Rs which is said to act inconveniently sometimes -

Local age is desirable on the duly orderly - This is viewed as a matter of course and the rule is proposed to be made clear by the addition of the necessary words

C A draft amended notification is submitted herewith

D Both the Commrs have agreed to it & I recommend that the amendments may be sanctioned

To

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith a draft Notification embodying certain amendments to the Country Beer Rules published under Government Notification No. 593-Ex. F. 595, dated 30th June '1902.

2. It has come to notice that the local Brewers and those on the Nilgiriries are combined in interest, so that it is feared that there will be no healthy competition for the country Beer Taverns at the ensuing auction sales. It is therefore necessary that the upset price per hogshead should be raised to Rs 35/-. The following figures will show the realizations from the sale of Beer and approximate cost of

of manufacture &c and net profit :—

| | Rs. as. P. |
|---|---|
| Realizations at 4 annas per reputed quart - | 8/- 0-0 |

Deduct :—

| | Rs. as. P. | |
|---|---|---|
| Manufacturing duty at 1 anna per gallon - | 3-6-0 | |
| Inland duty at 2 annas per gallon | 6-12-0 | |
| Cost of manufacture | 16-0-0 | 67-14-0 |
| Cost of vend | 6-12-0 | |
| License fee as per above upset price - | 35-0-0 | |
| | 67-14-0 | |

Net profit — 13-2-0

1) XX

2. It will thus be seen that the Government can reasonably expect a license fee of not less than Rs. 35/- per hogshead. Hence the amendment referred in clause (1) of the draft notification.

2) XX

3. The prescribed security of Rs 500/- being too high for the taverns at the Bangalore city, it is necessary that the Deputy Commissioner should be allowed discretion to levy such amount as may be deemed reasonable. Hence the amendment alluded to in clause (2).

4. The amendments referred to in clauses (3), (4) and (5) are in accordance with Government

Dear Mr. Dewanjee.

With reference to your proposals for amending the Country Beer Rules (letter no. 6109/394 & 8 April 1903), you propose to give the Dy Comm^r^s discretion to reduce the 500 Rs deposit by tavern keepers as Security.

This does not mention a minimum limit, and is indefinite. The 2^d^ Comm. -issioner doubts the ~~desir~~ advisability of the change. Would it be enough if the amount is reduced to Rs. 250? Or do you still think it best to leave the matter altogether to the Dy Comm^r^s discretion?

An early reply will oblige.

Yours Sincerely
(Signed) H.V. Nanjundayya

It will be seen from

503. e figures that the security of Rs 500.
igh in the case of the Sq: clerk Citizens & two 5 in the case of the foregoing tavern. It is necessary that for the latter the security must also be equal to one months'
rental fee viz Rs 1942.10.8. or 2000 in round numbers.
e security to be demanded
for each tavern will also depend upon the respectability or solvency of the person purchasing

4 Under such circumstances, it is necessary that the Dy Commr: should be given discretionary power to reduce or enhance the present prescribed penalty of Rs 500. Hence the proposed insertion of the words "or such other reasonable amount as may be fixed by the Dy Commr according to the value of each Cartman". I still think it best to leave the matter altogether to the Dy Commr's discretion

I beg the favour early orders in the matter, as I have not yet issued the notice for the sale of the taverns.
